

Farmers to Families Food Box Program

Date: October 21, 2020

Time: 1:00P Eastern/12:00 Central/11:00 Mountain/10:00 Pacific

Christopher Purdy - Associate Deputy Administrator, Commodity Procurement Program, USDA Agricultural Marketing Service
An Overview of the Food Box Program and Opportunities for Agricultural Producers to Connect with Commodity Procurement

Panel Discussion

What works? | What doesn't? | How to Make it Better?

- Andrew Yokom - General Manager, Puget Sound Food Hub Cooperative
- Lisette Alent - Executive Director, Inland Northwest Farmers Market Association
- Emily Black - Owner/Operator of Lone Mountain Farms, LINC Board President
- Scott Thellman - President of Juniper Hill Farms

How to Join? Click to join us live on - Adobe Connect YouTube Facebook ZOOM

For more Information click: AgInUncertainTimes.FarmManagement.org
USDA Farmers to Families Food Box Program

AG IN UNCERTAIN TIMES is a team of extension economists working to prepare fellow extension educators, agency representatives and agricultural producers for difficult economic times. The project team uses current technologies to assemble panels of nationally-known speakers to address major risk topic areas. The team utilizes evolving and recently available technologies to optimize the impact and reach of AIUT programming efforts.